

Traditional wedding of the Red Dao in Bat Xat district of Lao Cai province is among cultural beauties of this unique ethnic minority group.

According to Dao custom, the groom is not present in the bridal procession but in return, many wedding formalities showing his family's respect for the bride are held at the groom's home.□

From the Dao custom, the groom must wear a woman's costume with a scarf covering his face.

While traveling to the Dao wedding ceremony, the procession from the bride's family stops for the presented to the bride to glow. Only after this occasion, she will be able to wear the red dress.

Traditional Dao wedding

Thursday, 01 March 2018 09:18

Everyone who loves and respects life, should live together and be a good man and a good woman together