

After a tight encounter, HCM City were beaten by a single Quảng Ninh Coal goal late on in the ninth match of the V.League 1 yesterday.

Tough tackles: Quảng Ninh Coal and HCM City's players vie for the ball yesterday's match. — Photo Fanpage of HCM City FC

□

The game was held at Cẩm Phả Stadium in the northern province of Quảng Ninh.

Despite being the away team, HCM City started with confidence and had a number of chances to take the lead in the opening exchanges.

As the clock ticked a goalless draw seemed the likely result but in the 82nd minute HCM City midfielder Trần Phi Sơn thought he had broken the deadlock only for his goal to be ruled offside.

So incensed with the decision, Sơn's protests were deemed too much by the match official who promptly showed the visiting player the red card.

That close call, and the extra man advantage, gave the home side a lift and just three minutes later a long effort by Trần Hoà Hùng ended up in the back of the net to secure three points for the home team.

In Đà Nẵng, the hosts SHB Đà Nẵng couldn't break the defence line of Becamex Bình Dương and the game finished 0-0.

The match attracted the attention of media and fans nationwide as the two sides have had many achievements in the national premier league. SHB Đà Nẵng have won the league three times and finished runners-up for five times. They have also won the National Cup twice. While Bình Dương have also taken the league's trophy for four times and finished runners-up twice.

The two teams used their best players in this game to seek three points to improve their rankings. However, they played very carefully in the first half.

When the first half nearly closed, the best midfielder of SHB Đà Nẵng, Lâm Anh Quang had to withdraw through injury.

After the break, Bình Dương pressed to have the opener but all their effort was failed.

Elsewhere, Sài Gòn FC lost to Cần Thơ 1-2.

Source: VNS